

Agile Scrum Terms Worksheet

Instructions: Fill in the proper term names to corresponding definitions provided

Agile, Backlog Refinement, Daily Scrum, Development Team, Empiricism, Increment, Iteration, Product Backlog, Product Owner, Scrum, Scrum Master, Sprint, Sprint Backlog, Sprint Planning, Sprint Retrospective, Sprint Review, User Story

- _____ A time-box where all the product work is completed
- _____ A repeating cycle that enables the product to be delivered piece by piece
- _____ Maximizes the value of and makes decisions about the product being produced
- _____ Slice of a potentially shippable product often generated at the end of each iteration
- _____ Non-official event where items in the Product Backlog are updated and adjusted
- _____ Share lessons learned from the previous iteration
- _____ Servant leader who removes roadblocks and encourages use of Scrum best practices
- _____ Concept of learning from data collected through experience and experimentation
- _____ Meeting to discuss and often demo progress made during the iteration
- _____ Simple description of a feature from a user's perspective
- _____ Houses committed user stories for upcoming iteration
- _____ Discussion and commitment for the next iteration's work
- _____ A framework that values transparency, inspection, and adaption
- _____ Prioritized list of everything that is known to be needed
- _____ Discussion of yesterday's progress, today's plan, and any risks or issues
- _____ A philosophy or a mindset that aims to generate frequent value to the customer
- _____ Self-organizing, cross-functional group of people that create the solution